 Tulsa, Oklahoma 74105-4798

Dear Ms. Clements, Mrs. Cates, Faculty, Staff, Parents & Students of the School of Saint Mary:

Mrs. Cates contacted me the first week of January and asked us if we were receptive to the idea of our daughter's library being "adopted" for Catholic Schools Week. We answered with an enthusiastic "YES". The library was established in 2009 with 10,000 books from Rebecca's estate (as you can tell from the amount of books she had - she LOVED to read). One of Rebecca's favorite quotes by Henry David Thoreau (1817 - 1862) was: "Books are the treasured wealth of the world and the fit inheritance of generations and nations." We are so humbled by your response to the book drive and wish to thank each of you so very much for the generous donation of 425 books! Inclusive of the books the School of Saint Mary contributed, the grand total now stands at 2,650,549 books that have been distributed across Northeastern Oklahoma. Your bountiful contribution will go a long way in benefitting others with the beautiful gift of literacy.

It is generous, caring and thoughtful friends like you that help keep our beloved daughter's perpetual memorial at Catholic Charities moving forward to benefit, care and serve others in her memory.

We wish many blessings to each of you for your unselfishness in contributing books to those less fortunate and in supporting The Rebecca Castaldi Memorial Library.

Sincerely,

Mike & Gayla Castaldi

You are so thoughtful and generous in thinking of our daughter's numerous memorials at Catholic Charities. It warms our hearts to know that Rebecca is not forgotten and her mission to help others is carried forward by your kindness. Your contribution will go far in helping others. Thank you so much! Much love & Many Blessings, Mike & Gayla Castaldi
