Calling all SOSM moms, grandmas, and aunts! Now that the craziness of the holidays are past, give yourself the gift of rest by attending an ACTS Retreat. During retreat, you'll have the opportunity to pray, grow in friendship with the other women of the parish, participate in the sacraments of Eucharist and Reconciliation, and more.

The next women's ACTS Retreat will be held at Camp Egan in Tahlequah, February 8-11. Transportation to and from the retreat will be provided; retreatants should plan to arrive at Church of Saint Mary by 4:30 pm on Thursday. We'll return on Sunday morning for the 10:30 AM Mass.

The cost for retreat is $150, but scholarships are available. To register go to www.churchofsaintmary.com/acts or scan this QR Code. Questions? Contact Retreat Director Barbara Nagode at 281-352-5616 or barbarana-gode0916@gmail.com.

Step into the enchanting world of “Oliver Twist,” with a riveting theatrical adaptation that masterfully captures Charles Dickens’ timeless story of the little orphan boy born under mysterious circumstances. This gripping production weaves together drama, suspense, mystery, and intrigue to bring to life the struggles of goodness triumphing over suffering in Victorian England. This adaptation, skillfully crafted by playwright and director Kenneth Henderson, delves deep into the intricate layers of Dickens’ original narrative, delivering an emotionally charged experience that resonates with audiences of all ages. Performed by the talented students of the Classical Catholic Drama Club at the Broken Arrow Community Playhouse.
