

What constitutes an active parishioner?

As we begin the process of re-enrollment in our own School of Saint Mary, I believe it would be helpful to provide clear guidelines for our families on what constitutes active parishioner status. This also applies for families enrolling students at Bishop Kelley High School. We should be clear what the expectations of an active parishioner are so that everyone understands the standard we use.

Because we view Catholic education as a partnership with families and the church does subsidize the school, we offer discounted tuition to active parishioners who are supporting the parish with their time, talent, and treasure. In the case of Catholic families who are parishioners elsewhere, we ask their parish to verify their status and pay a subsidy per child.

So... what constitutes an active parishioner at the Church of Saint Mary?

- Be formally registered in the parish. If in any doubt about whether your family is in the church database, please contact the parish office to verify.
- Attend Sunday Mass regularly. This is the most important metric we use. Due to schedules or other commitments people occasionally attend other parishes, which is perfectly understandable. However, we should see you on a regular basis. We love to see families at the weekly school Mass on Friday, but Friday does not fulfill your Sunday obligation.
- Give according to your means. The amount you give is not important, but it is helpful to us to know that you are financially supporting the parish by trackable contributions such as checks, online giving, or using envelopes.
- Be active in parish ministries. Our parents do a great job supporting school events, but don't forget about many of the ministries on the parish side. Consider attending or volunteering as a contribution of your time (which we know is limited and valuable, so all the more worthy of recognition).

We are blessed with a wonderful community at Saint Mary in both our church and school. Catholic education is a huge part of what we do; therefore, fostering close ties between the parish and the school is critical to the success of that mission. With these active parishioner guidelines, we hope to encourage the fullest possible collaboration with all our families.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stuart Crevcoure

HEAVENLY FATHER

We come before you with open hearts and minds as we seek a new principal for our school. We ask for your wisdom and guidance in this important decision.

Help us to identify a leader who will inspire, nurture, and uplift our students and staff. May this person embody integrity, compassion, and a commitment to excellence in education.

Grant us clarity in our discussions and discernment in our choices. Surround us with your peace as we navigate this process, and help us to trust in your perfect timing.

We thank you for the individuals who have served us in the past and for the future leader you have in store for us.

We trust in your plan for our school and look forward to the growth and success that lie ahead.
